

FREE SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETING FOR DEAF SENIORS

Under a new Federal Government scheme there is now free Auslan interpreting for Australians who are Deaf, Deafblind, or hard of hearing and over 65.

WHAT CAN IT BE USED FOR?

This new service will support Australian seniors to better engage with:

- Aged Care System Navigators
- My Aged Care
- Regional Assessment Services
- Aged Care Assessment Teams
- Home Care Package Providers
- Commonwealth Home Support Programme (CHSP) Providers
- Residential Aged Care service providers
- Other organisations delivering Australian Government funded aged care services

WHAT SERVICES ARE AVAILABLE?

- Face-to-face Auslan Interpreting
- Video Remote Interpreting (VRI)

Available 7 days a week (after-hours when required) across all states and territories in Australia.
